

Global Learning

Interactive global course and curriculum design

A half-day workshop featuring

Hilary Kahn, PhD

Director, Center for the Study of Global Change, Indiana University

This workshop will encourage CSU faculty to articulate global learning outcomes and think about designing learning environments to achieve them. The workshop will utilize backward design to integrate and align global learning outcomes in course syllabi, curricula, pedagogies, class activities, and assessment.

Participants should bring a course syllabus or set of program learning goals for discussion. Lunch will be provided.
